Dear Brother

I have undertaken a piece of work that I almost dread being altogether unacquainted with you for some years but as it is the desire of your Sister I shall proceed without any further apology

Dear Brother

You are a fine Fellow indeed not one word have I received from you since last time (that is I don't remember that I have) what in the world is the matter you have two letters to answer, beside this, when this reaches you I hope you'll be so kind as to write me one line if no more & I'd advise you to send me that letter ~~or~~ (if it is not at Windsor) or I'll not send to you any more, please to set all thing in order to receive one of your best friends sometime next week

I have just leasure to write one line to you & no more there was a young Lady here this afternoon & took pity on me & wrote part of this letter You will hear from me again or see me very soon I am your

Affectionate Sister

Polly Robinson

P.S. I have the very worst pen that ever I attempted to write with

P.S. You will certainly be umost agreeably surprised before next week is out I am prepareing for a journey &c,
